Camps

Chitabe Ladiba: A quiet, smaller camp – perfect for groups or families and offers a classic safari experience with a year-round variety of game and bird viewing. It consists of five Meru-style canvas tents, built on raised decks with unique and tasteful interiors. The en-suite facilities have double vanity basins, with indoor and outdoor showers offering spectacular views of the Delta.

Little Vumbura: Situated on a wooded island and accessible only by boat, Little Vumbura camp is the epitome of an island living in the midst of the Delta. It has six beautiful tented rooms, each with views over the waving grasses of the surrounding floodplains. A pool and reading area overlook the floodplains and a star deck leads off the dining area.

DumaTau Camp: Located in the important ‘Bird Area’, DumaTau is a premier camp. Its extensive lagoon frontage ensures that each ultra-spacious 142 m2 guest suite has uninterrupted views over Osprey Lagoon and the movements of the mega-herds of elephants that the Linyanti is so famous for. All seven twin suites and one family unit have a private plunge pool and a comfortable lounge, featuring a large bathroom with indoor and outdoor showers. The main dining and lounge area boasts its own wide-angle vistas, overlooking the wildlife-rich lagoon, while a new wellness center and gym – shared with Little DumaTau – includes an inviting shaded deck, a lap pool, spa, snack deli, and Safari Boutique. DumaTau runs on 100% solar energy.
